

ORGANIZATIONAL CHART

RENO INTERNATIONAL HOUSE

As a business-as-mission organization, Reno International House seeks to profitably operate value-added living services, including rooming houses and apartments for international students, visiting workers and immigrants. The Reno International House is structured as a private company. It works together with International Friends of Reno, a non-profit organization that serves internationals in the region as well. The Front-End Housing Operations Director oversees most responsibilities and tasks, and reports to the Board as a steward. The company board is made up of advisors from the local ministry and which includes the operations director.

